NEW DOWNTOWN QUAY

In summer 2023, the new downtown dock will be ready to accommodate cruise ships. The boats will arrive right in the center of Harstad, and take a few minutes to visit the shopping center, cafes and restaurants. In Harstad you will be able to experience beautiful nature and urban life in one and the same place.

Harstad is the third largest town in Northern Norway and is located on mainland Norway's largest island. There are short distances to experience what Harstad has to offer. Here you can experience powerful nature, northern lights, bright summer days, various activities for children and adults and much more.

Our Viking history

The viking Tore Hund was born around 990 and died sometime after 1030, he was one of the most important head viking in Hålogaland. He had a farm at Bjarkøy which is an hour and a half away from Harstad. Tore Hund was out on Viking expeditions and led several expeditions north to the Kola Peninsula and the White Sea in Bjarmeland (present-day Russia). When Olav Haraldsson became king, Tore Hund became his lendmann in the north.

History & Culture

No holiday without some history and culture! People tend to deepdive into cultural and historical experiences when coming to their travel destinations - and Harstad has an abundance of cultural and historical experiences! The small city was a center during the Viking Age in Norwegian history, and its legacy still stands strong in all nooks of the region.

Combine this with a rich cultural life that the city has to offer with numerous festivals and Northern Norway's largest cultural scene and you will definitely find something for every culture lover. Travel to Trondenes peninsula which is the cradle of Harstad history, travel around Kvæfjord which is the home of the local produce used in our culinary vision, experience urban activities in the city center or just travel around the archipelago to find remnants dating all the way back to the Ice Age!

The TV Tower stands on a hill in the middle of Harstad and boast with a fantastic view over the city, Vågsfjord and the nearby islands. Form the city center the walk takes 45 min by first following the main road up to a roundabout, then heading to the right. You can also book a taxi that takes you almost to the top. On top you will find benches and tables. In the winter beautiful lights illuminate the tower.

CITY CENTER

From the city center dock it's only a few minutes until you're right in the heart of Harstad city center. Here you will find everything from urban experiences, coffee, food, souvenirs, two shopping centers, harbor promenade and old buildings. Here you will also find tourist information, helpful residents and much more. In December you can enjoy a large Christmas tree in the middle of the square filled with Christmas lights.

CITY PARK

The city park starts at the big ski jump just behind the hospital. Locals use it all year round for skiing, biking, and hiking. Several shelters and fireplaces invite you to make a stop. If you visit Folkeparken in autumn, there is plenty of blueberries to pick and in swampy areas you might also find cloudberries. The map at the entrance help you to find small lakes.

THE PATH ALONG THE SEA

In recent times, a footpath has been designed along the fjord that is intended to stretch from Trondenes Church to Harstad city center, and further south towards Gangsås. This can also be seen as a symbol of the importance of Trondenes as a place of recreation for the people of Harstad.

In addition, the Medieval Farm just next door gives an authentic look into a traditional household from around 1200.
